Recount Completed For Congressman

Only the Plainfield Ballot Box was Opened, Mayor Thayer Withdrawing His Application Concerning the Local Boxes—Jodoin Would Get Only 30 if Judges Allow Him all that is Claimed—Higgins would Gain Five—Judges Reserve Decision—Opinions on the Benefits Gained.

With the spectators' seats well filled and many lawyers in attendance, the petitions of W. J. Kennedy of Plainfield and N. B. Lewis of Norwich for a recount of the votes in the recent election came before Judges Samuel O. Pratt, John M. Thayer and Alberto T. Rodolfo, the undersigned judges, here on Wednesday morning at 10.30 o'clock. Judge Pratt presided and announced that the case was heard and named Judge Thayer and himself to act with Judge Thayer in hearing the petitions.

The counsel who appeared in the matter were Mayor Thayer for the plaintiff, and ex-Mayor Henry Thayer, J. F. Carpenter of Putnam and Michael Kennedy represented Congressman Higgins.

Congressman Higgins and Raymond J. Jodoin were both in attendance, and there were also many election officials from several towns and several of the attorneys, it being an unusual matter.

Attorney Thayer announced that he had just at that moment received the answer to the complaint, not having had time to read it, but the judge had not heard it. He read it aloud, concerning the Plainfield case, showing the first three counts to be admitted, the fourth and fifth counts being denied. It was admitted that certain ballots in Plainfield were thrown out for illegality.
